Enough Abuse Campaign Nevada

A partnership led by The Rape Crisis Center and Prevent Child Abuse Nevada to create widespread change to prevent child sexual abuse through engagement of parents, care providers, youth-serving organizations, and concerned citizens. The goal of the Campaign is to Educate, Communicate, and Advocate to end child sexual abuse.

We can and we will stop child sexual abuse. ENOUGH!

Multiple Presentations Available, offered by trained facilitators:

All presentations provide the most up-to-date information on child sexual abuse prevention. Information presented is all cited, well researched and well informed. The Enough Abuse Campaign and the creation of its’ materials were originally funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

The Campaign offers:

- A framework for looking at child sexual abuse as the public health problem that it is and addressing the prevention of abuse in a manner similar to the way other behavior-based public health issues have been.
- Communication tips for parents and others to talk to children in a healthy and neutral way about their bodies, sexuality, and safety.
- Action steps that everyone can take to be a part of the solution to this devastating problem.
- Policy change that can be implemented both governmentally and institutionally to make an impact on this issue.

Presentations:

- Can be done in various timeframes – 30 minute (if a series of three sessions), one hour, two hour, and half-day
- Provide high quality materials, with all information cited
- Are geared toward specific audiences: medical and mental health professionals; parents; those who work in youth serving organization
- Are offered free of charge to your organization through generous funding from the Engelstad Family Foundation

To schedule or customize a presentation for your group or organization, please contact The Rape Crisis Center at 702-385-2153 or email Daniele@rcclv.org no later than four weeks before the requested date.
